FUND MANAGER'S COMMENT

The typical portfolio registered a return of 2.26% in March, which was higher than the benchmark FBM EMAS Shariah's return of 0.69%. Following meetings with corporates, reassurance was provided for sequential growth in certain industrial/semiconductor sectors, driven by a record RM329.5 billion approved investments in 2023 (+23% YoY). Construction sector remains prominent, with potential projects like HSR, MRT3, and data centers sparking interest. Upstream energy sectors are favored. Investors are set to monitor government initiatives' progress. Market adjustments expected for higher costs from subsidy removal (diesel and electricity) and new taxes (Capital Gains Tax and High-Value Goods Tax). Despite foreign selling, confidence remains due to macro blueprints' execution, strong domestic demand, potential US dollar trend reversal, and attractive valuation.
