FUND MANAGER'S COMMENT

Global equities may encounter near-term challenges due to escalating geopolitical tensions, persistent inflation, and slower global growth. While some central banks have initiated rate cuts, the U.S. Federal Reserve has yet to follow suit. Markets anticipate a potential rate cut in June to support U.S. growth, especially after the economy contracted at an annualized rate of 0.3% in Q1 2025—the first decline since early 2022. While rate cuts may support valuations, trade uncertainties and uneven growth across regions could weigh on sentiment. As global markets grapple with heightened uncertainty, we emphasize the importance of diversification and a focus on quality amid volatility.

Locally, near-term market direction remains closely tied to the progress of US tariff negotiations with key trading partners, including Malaysia. Meanwhile, investors face a complex mix of headwinds: US-China tensions, rising recession risks, Fed policy uncertainty, the ongoing US earnings season, and Malaysia's upcoming May reporting cycle. That said, valuations remain attractive, with the KLCI trading at 12.7x P/E—approximately 25% below its 10-year mean of 17x. Additionally, foreign shareholding remains near historic lows at 19.4% (as of April), signalling potential upside from further positioning flows. We encourage our clients to stay invested and position when opportunities arise.
