*The portfolio performance is based on a composite of all individual portfolios under the same mandate type and does not represent any specific portfolio. Returns are calculated using a composite Time-Weighted Rate of Return (TWRR), with individual portfolio returns weighted by their beginning-of-period asset values to account for varying portfolio sizes and cash flows. For more details on how the composite return is derived, please refer to the article titled "Understanding Private Mandate" on www.phillipinvest.com.my.

Effective 1 September 2023, the benchmark of FBM EMAS Shariah is changed to Target Return of 5.0% p.a.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENT

As we move through 2026, global equities are expected to post moderate gains, supported by solid earnings growth, though valuation concerns persist. For investors, geopolitical developments, AI-related capital expenditure monetization, and concentration risks are key factors. The current Fed rate-cut cycle should support equities, with Asian markets potentially able to ease further given elevated real rates. In this environment, we recommend a barbell strategy focused on quality growth and income to navigate potential volatility.

Following robust gains in December, we do not rule out the possibility of profit-taking, as investors continue to digest heightened geopolitical risks. These include the reported capture of Venezuelan President Maduro by the US, the potential for US intervention in Iran should civil unrest escalate, and ongoing tensions between China and Japan. That said, Malaysia's fundamentals remain supportive, underpinned by solid GDP growth (2025/26: 4.7%/4.3%), undemanding valuations (2026F P/E: 14.5x vs 5-year mean of 17.2x), a strengthening ringgit (+9.3% vs end-2024), and healthy core earnings growth of 6-8% in CY26. Private consumption is set to remain the main growth driver in 2026, supported by a tight labour market, steady wage growth, and strong household confidence, with high-value sectors like AI, data centres, and advanced manufacturing further boosting growth.
