ECONOMIC NEWS

US: US first-quarter GDP revised sharply higher; but consumer spending nearly stalls

The US economy grew faster than previously estimated in the first quarter, but consumer spending almost stalled. Gross domestic product increased at an upwardly revised 2.1% annualized rate last quarter, the Commerce Department's Bureau of Economic Analysis said in its third estimate of first-quarter GDP. (Reuters)

EU: ECB's Schnabel sees more tightening even after Iran ceasefire

The European Central Bank will need to keep raising interest rates as energy prices remain high and a ceasefire in the Middle East is no reason for policymakers to let their guard down, ECB board member Isabel Schnabel said. (Reuters)

GLOB: Thailand, Argentina primed as next supply chain 'rising stars'

Thailand, the Philippines and Argentina are among a group of promising yet underutilised economies primed for an increasing role in supply chains, according to a new analysis of global trade trends. (The Edge Malaysia)

CORPORATE NEWS

Gold miner Niche Capital enters deal with rare earth firm to undertake exploration in Kelantan

Gold miner Niche Capital Emas Holdings Bhd said it has entered into an agreement with rare earth firm Greensnow Consolidated Bhd to jointly undertake a rare earth exploration, extraction and processing project in Kelantan. The two parties plan to develop the rare earth project over 2,000 acres of land located in Sungai Jeli, said Niche Capital. The development involves works such as an integrated rare earth project encompassing exploration, resource evaluation, extraction, beneficiation, processing, rare earth separation, infrastructure development, logistics and the commercialisation of rare earth products. (The Edge Malaysia)

Ibraco unit signs 30-year solar power deal with Sarawak's SESCO for 100MW solar facility

Ibraco Bhd said its associate company Equinox Power Sdn Bhd has signed a 30 year power purchase agreement with the utility arm of Sarawak Energy Bhd (SEB) for a large-scale solar photovoltaic project in Sarawak. The construction company said Equinox Power — 24.5%-owned by Ibraco — entered into an agreement with Syarikat SESCO Bhd on Thursday (25 June). Under the agreement, Equinox Power will be responsible for developing, constructing, owning, operating, and maintaining a 100-megawatt alternative current (MWac) solar facility located in Similajau, Bintulu division.
