Farm Price gets SC approval for transfer to Main Market

Farm Price Holdings Bhd said it has obtained approval from the Securities Commission Malaysia (SC) for the Johor-based company's proposed transfer to the Main Market of Bursa Malaysia. "The SC also took note that Farm Price Holdings had complied with the Bumiputera equity requirement for public listed companies of Bursa Securities," the wholesaler and distributor of fresh vegetables. The company had announced the proposed transfer in February, saying the move would enhance its credibility and standing, broaden recognition among a wider pool of investors, and reinforce confidence in its long-term prospects.
