ECONOMIC NEWS

US: US weekly jobless claims plunge to lowest since 1969

The number of Americans seeking unemployment benefits for the first time unexpectedly fell last week to the lowest since the 1960s, indicating the US job market continues on an even keel and leaving Federal Reserve officials to keep their focus on containing inflation. (Reuters)

EU: Oil price surge reignites inflation worries as ECB holds rates

A spike in oil prices toward USD100 a barrel drove Europe's government borrowing costs to long-term highs as reignited inflation worries prompted some hawkish signals from the European Central Bank as it held rates steady. (Reuters)

GLOB: Indonesia announces looser export earnings rules for US, China exporters

Companies exporting Indonesia's natural resources to the United States, China, Canada and Australia will be treated more leniently in a new earnings retention regime aimed at defending the faltering rupiah currency, chief economic minister Airlangga Hartarto told reporters on Thursday. CORPORATE NEWS

KIP REIT posts record FY2026 distribution, gets nod for Setapak Central deal

KIP Real Estate Investment Trust capped a record financial year on Thursday with its highest annual distribution since listing, as unitholders approved its RM435m acquisition of Setapak Central Mall, paving the way for the retail-focused REIT's next phase of growth. The proposed acquisition, together with a private placement of up to 220m new units to partly fund the deal, is expected to lift KIP REIT's assets under management to RM2.1b, exceeding its RM2b target ahead of schedule. YNH Property defers RM34.4m coupon payments to fund ongoing projects

YNH Property Bhd is deferring RM34.41m in coupon payments across two tranches under its perpetual securities programme to preserve cash for its ongoing developments, including Solasta Dutamas and its township projects in Seri Manjung. The first RM87m tranche involves a RM7.9m coupon payment, originally due on July 30, 2026, which has been deferred to Jan 29, 2027. (The Edge Malaysia)

Aneka Jaringan posts quarterly loss as higher costs squeeze margins

Aneka Jaringan Holdings Bhd posted its first third-quarter loss in three years as higher material, fuel and transportation costs squeezed project margins despite stronger revenue. The engineering and construction group posted a net loss of RM1.91m for the three months ended May 31, 2026 (3QFY2026), compared to a net profit of RM738,000 a year earlier, according to its Bursa Malaysia filing on Thursday.
