ECONOMIC NEWS

US: Private sector wage gains lift US labor costs in Q2, underlying trend benign

US labor costs increased slightly more than expected in the second quarter as private-sector wage growth picked up, though the underlying trend remained benign and suggested the jobs market was not driving inflation. (Reuters)

EU: Bank of England's Pill sees risk of 'insidious' build-up of inflation pressures

Bank of England Chief Economist Huw Pill said on Friday that there was a risk of a gradual build-up of long-term inflation pressures in Britain's economy caused by the jump in energy prices triggered by the Iran war. (Reuters)

GLOB: US bars imports from 43 more companies over China's alleged forced labour involving Uyghurs

The United States on Friday banned imports from 43 more companies over alleged human rights abuses of Uyghur and other minority groups, including Hunan Aihua Group, one of China's largest capacitor manufacturers, according to a government posting. (The Edge Malaysia)

CORPORATE NEWS

ITMAX secures RM120.0m Kuala Lumpur smart street lighting contract

ITMAX System Bhd has secured a six-year contract worth RM120.0m for the supply, installation and maintenance of a smart street lighting system in Kuala Lumpur. The smart city integrated systems and solutions provider said it has received a Letter of Acceptance (LOA) dated July 28 from Kuala Lumpur City Hall (DBKL) for the contract. The commencement and completion dates of the six year contract period will be determined and notified by DBKL, it noted. (The Edge Malaysia)

Oxford Innotech secures RM8.8m semiconductor orders

Oxford Innotech Bhd has secured purchase orders worth a combined RM8.8m to supply precision engineering components for mass flow controllers used in the semiconductor industry. The integrated engineering solutions provider said the orders were awarded to its wholly owned subsidiary, CG Solutions Enterprise Sdn Bhd, by a United States-based mass flow controller manufacturer with a production facility in Malaysia. The customer's identity was not disclosed due to confidentiality requirements. (The Star)

Komarkcorp to sell Cheras factory for RM40.0m

Komarkcorp Bhd has proposed to dispose of its industrial property in Cheras, Selangor, for RM40.0m as part of efforts to optimise asset utilisation, reduce property-related costs and strengthen its financial position. The group said its wholly owned subsidiary, Komark International (M) Sdn Bhd, had entered into a sale and purchase agreement with QM Print Sdn Bhd to sell the freehold property in Taman Cheras Jaya. It said the disposal price was based on a willing-buyer willing-seller basis and matched the property's independently appraised market value of RM40.0m as at July 9, 2026. (The Star)
